Babson Discusses The Stock Market

(Exclusive NEWS Feature)

I freely admit that a great change is taking place in the government of this country. Not only did the country give Eisenhower a "landslide" victory last November, but Eisenhower is now giving "big business" a "landslide" stock market in return.

Why Stocks Have Gone Up

The appointment of so many successful businessmen to high offices has made them and their friends very bullish. These friends have passed along the word to other friends, who have bought stocks at an unprecedented rate. Naturally, stock prices have been going up and will continue to climb as long as this buying exists.

Have these Republicans bought for investment or to sell again soon at a profit? Frankly, I do not know, but my guess is the latter. If so, when these friends of the big shots begin to sell, who will be the buyers? A stock market can tumble from present prices as fast as it can climb. After Hoover's election in 1928 the Industrial Averages went up 100 points within 10 months, but then fell back over 100 points in only one month!

Will History Repeat Itself?

Stocks rallied again during the first part of 1930, but in April began an almost steady decline until, in 1932, they had fallen a total of 300 points from the 1929 peak! This means that the Industrial Averages, which were selling above 350 after Hoover had been in office six months, sold at only 50 the fourth year of his term.

This does not mean that such a decline can now happen again.

Dinner, Speech, Tableaux, Election Make Girl Scout Evening Gay

A. W. Wunderly Speaks On Father's Role

On Monday evening in the parlors of the Unitarian Church, Arlington Center, the Arlington Girl Scout Council held its annual meeting and election preceded at 6:30 by a much-enjoyed dinner. Also sharing the meeting were members of the Girl Scout Leaders' Assn. Principal speaker of the evening was Albert W. Wunderly, former assistant district attorney as well as a father and grandfather of Girl Scouts. His topic, "The Role of the Father in Girl Scouting," was one which pleased him, and he gave his listeners laughs when he stated that a father is a good thing to have around when money is needed, when a campsite needs clearing, or when the hard work of setting up a camp is to be done. "But fathers have good times, along with the work," he assured listeners.

The speaker also stressed the good done by the scout program and said that members of scouting are not among those who end up in the courts of juvenile delinquency. "Also," he said, "fathers should be willing for mothers to give their time to scouting for the results in character building far outweigh the effort put forth."

One part of the evening's activities involved election of officers for the coming year, and the result of the balloting showed that the new president would be Mrs. Roy C. Spencer, with Mrs. Alfred Good and Mrs. Harold Holbrook as first and second vice presidents respectively. The new secretary is Mrs. C. F. Collins, the treasurer and assistant treasurer being Mrs. Frederick Hill and Mrs. Charles W. Pierce. Elected as Council members were Mrs. Ehrich Schreier, whose term (Continued on Page Two)

How About You?

Town Clerk Golden said yesterday that at the evening registration session held Monday night at Crosby and Cutter Schools only four persons showed up to register at Cutter School, with none appearing at Crosby.

Because of the expense involved in the evening registrations — heat, light, custodian, etc. — he said he felt voters should take advantage of the opportunity offered to them to register in their own neighborhoods.

Town Meeting Members

In addition to candidates for larger office, there are 81 3-year vacancies for Town Meeting. Town Clerk Golden has received 119 sets of papers from candidates. There will be contests in all except Precinct 12, with Precinct 12 having the same number of vacancies as candidates.

Also, there are six vacancies of two years each, with Precincts 2 and 14 each being one candidate short; in the 1-year group, there are four vacancies, with Precinct 10 being one candidate short.

Arlington Girl In College Fete

Miss Maureen Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel S. Turner of 43 Chester Street, was recently elected "attendant to the queen" for the annual Winter Carnival at Mount Saint Mary's College.

The Winter Carnival weekend, January 30 through February 1, will include winter sports, a "sock dance," sleigh ride, and a "Cordona Cotillion" at Hotel Carpenter, Manchester, New Hampshire. The coronation of the carnival queen and the presentation of her court will take place at the dance.

Miss Turner, a sophomore, has been active in many social events at the college. Her club memberships include the Music and Dramatic Clubs. Prior to her election to the Queen's Court, she was chosen to model in a Fashion Show.

A mathematics major, Miss Turner is a member of the National Student Association, and the National Federation of Catholic College Students.

With interest in candidacies, campaign pronouncements, and Town Meeting topics growing warmer each week, the office of the Selectmen has released for publication copies of the 1953 Town Warrant. Many of the 85 articles (yes, 85!) already have been mentioned or discussed in the press, but others of wide interest have not. Among the articles little mentioned to date are:

- 1) proposed sale of four trucks owned by the Public Works Dept. and used by the sanitation division;
- 2) a petition to the town regarding acceptance of a state law on the construction of incinerators by the M. D. C.;
- 3) request of Rep. Henry E. Keenan for funds to improve Spy Pond;
- 4) proposed study of the adequacy of Arlington fire stations;
- 5) request for funds to aid children at school crossings;
- 6) request of the Housing Authority re town approval of the erection of a housing project;
- 7) proposals for acquisition of land for parking areas;
- 8) proposal for funds to raze the former Junior High Industrial Arts School.

Pay Jumps
Other petitions more widely known by the public concern Russell School; the revaluation of all property in the town, residential and otherwise; Christmas lighting; and recommendations of the Personnel Board for pay increases to persons in specified jobs. One such recommendation asks an increase of $104 for persons in classification grades I through VII — a jump of $1 per week. Also proposed is a pay increase for grade XXV the jump for the maximum step being $300.

Town Hall Saving

The Selectmen's office reported yesterday that an estimate of construction cost for the proposed Town Hall addition will require an appropriation of only $40,000, if approved, instead of $95,000 as requested last year.

Fox, Library Trustee Candidate, Off On Round-The-World Trip

John B. Fox of 36 Pleasant View Road, candidate for re-election as Library Trustee, has announced that he will have to conduct his campaign in absentia. Accompanied by his wife, he left Arlington last Thursday on a round-the-world trip under the auspices of the Ford Foundation and Harvard University. They will return in May.

Mr. Fox will carry out missions for the Ford Foundation in Turkey and India; during the rest of the trip, he will be travelling as a representative of Harvard University. He is assistant dean of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

After a preliminary survey of eight countries in the Near East, the Ford Foundation received a recommendation that a school of business be established in Turkey. The Foundation then asked the Harvard Business School to lend someone to investigate this recommendation and, if he concurred in it, to suggest the steps to be taken to establish such a school. The Harvard Business School made Mr. Fox's services available for this assignment, and he will be in Turkey for about a month studying the kinds of commercial activities and opportunities available and the various factors that would be involved in starting a business school.

In India, the Foundation has asked Mr. Fox, among others, to give his opinion on the desirability of a proposal to establish courses in business administration at New Delhi. Mr. Fox will be in India for a week or 10 days. As a representative of Harvard University during the rest of the trip he will stop in Japan, Formosa, Hong Kong, Manila, Indonesia, Singapore, Bangkok, and Rangoon to learn as much as he can as to what part education plays in conditioning young people, what opportunities are available for the young people to grow into jobs of responsibility, and how they get to be leaders.

The Foxes will travel westward and by air all the way except for one short train ride. They will travel from Boston to California, across the Pacific, and after many stops, to Turkey. From Turkey their route will take them through Italy, France, and the Scandinavian countries and then home across the Atlantic.

Before leaving, both Mr. and Mrs. Fox expressed their thanks to the Arlington Police Department, Board of Health, and other town officials for the co-operative and prompt assistance in providing the documents required at various points at which they will stop on their journey.

All Candidate Papers Now Filed; Donahue Seeking Moderatorship

With the final date for the filing of papers of candidates for office now past, it is possible to present to voters a complete listing of candidates, and one surprise which they will find in the list is the last-minute candidacy of James W. Donahue of 56 Foster St. for the office of Moderator. His papers were presented at the Town Clerk's office just before 5:00 o'clock Monday, final hour for filing. He will oppose Harold E. Magnuson in the campaign for the office.

Another change of interest is the shift of William P. Murray, who had been a candidate for the job of Selectman, to the race for the Planning Board.

Following are the names of all candidates as they now stand. The last number indicates the number to be chosen. The asterisk indicates incumbency.

Workers Really Work

Approximately 30 enthusiastic "Alderson for Selectman" workers turned nomination papers over to Herbert O. Alderson, candidate for the three-year term as Selectman, with 2500 signatures, far in excess of the number necessary for filing. Many house rallies have been scheduled for the month of February and Alderson workers are planning on a large turnout of voters for the election on March 2nd.

Warrant Articles

Included under this classification are the Police Chief, Fire Chief, and the Superintendent of Public Works. A number of other pay increases also are asked in the form of reclassifications. The reason given for the Grade I - VII jumps, which will go to laborers and clerical workers, is to put local wages in line with those prevailing in communities of a similar size.

Correction
In the incompletely-corrected version of the vacation-sick leave plan printed in The News last week, a few minor errors existed. Section III under "Sick Leave" should have read:
"Sick leave accumulated for each year of employment shall not exceed 120 working days. No employee shall be entitled to a leave of absence with pay on account of sickness in excess of the accumulated sick leave then due, unless it is approved by the appointing authority, and then only after any vacation leave due is used."
In the same division, Section V has an added clause to the effect that time off at the time of death of specified relatives shall be charged to accumulated sick leave. Section X should have read:
"Accrued sick leave shall be computed for each year of service beginning January 1, 1945. If accrued sick leave cannot be computed, due to the lack of records, the employee shall be credited with eight working days for each year of service not to exceed 64 working days."
In addition, the following regulations have been added:
• Militia, Etc. Leave
Section I.
"Any permanent classified full-time Town employee shall be entitled during the time of his service in the organized militia, under sections 11, 17, 18, 19, 105 or 154, or during his annual tour of duty of not exceeding two calendar weeks as a member of the organized reserve of the Army of the United States or of the United States naval reserve forces, to receive pay therefor, without loss of his ordinary remuneration as an employee of the Town and shall also be entitled to the same leaves of absence or vacation with pay given to other like employees."

Rawson TV Referee For Lightweights

The first nationally televised boxing bout was held last Saturday evening at Boston Arena, with Thomas Rawson, chairman of Arlington Board of Public Works, acting as referee of the main bout. Contenders were "Baby Face" Ralph Jones of Detroit and Hernandez Herman of California, both in the lightweight class. The decision was given to Jones in the 10th round.

Preliminary work is already under way for the raising of funds for the proposed new Parish House. An intensive campaign will be undertaken in the near future.

Girl Scouts
will expire in 1955, and the following persons who terms will conclude in 1956: Mrs. E. A. Barnard, Mrs. Lewis Beaumont, Mrs. Paul Heeger, Mrs. Frederick Hill, Mrs. James Kidder, Mrs. Charles Pierce, Mrs. Donald Petter and Mrs. Alfred Yood.

Leader representatives for the coming year will be Mrs. Myles Beaton and Mrs. Raymond Cronin. Mrs. Kenneth C. Reed was elected to the group's advisory board. Chosen for the nominating committee were Mrs. E. A. Barnard (3 years), Mrs. John Cox (1 year), and Mrs. Myles Beaton (1 year).

Following the election, the incoming president presented Mrs. David Shute, retiring Commissioner, with a service medal for her leadership in the Council. Mrs. Shute in turn presented an award for many years of faithful service, giving it to Mrs. Kenneth Reed. Mr. and Mrs. Reed, having built a home in Lincoln, will move from Arlington shortly.

Also receiving pins were Mrs. Osceva Schreiner and Miss Martha Barr (30 year pins), Mrs. Arthur Sampson (25 year pin), Mrs. Frederick Hill (20 year pin), Mrs. Justin McCarthy (15 year pin), Mrs. Joseph Lopez, Mrs. John Muller, and Mrs. Lawrence Wessells (5 year pins). The pins were presented by Mrs. Harold A. Yeames.

During one point in the program some half dozen persons representing local organizations which have co-operated with and aided the scout program stood in a semi-circle holding aloft namecards of their organizations.

The entertainment part of the pleasant evening consisted of tableaux posed by Girl Scouts and Brownies. They depicted the girls both in play and in pursuance of Girl Scout ideals. The chorus participating in the presentation was directed by Mrs. Shute. Miss Elizabeth Pierce was narrator.

Local Oil Salesman Attends Md. Course

Robert W. Totten of 52 Amsden Street, a salesman for the Cambridge branch of the American Oil Company, will receive a certificate tomorrow for successful completion of a special four-week sales training class in Baltimore, Md.

Totten, one of 12 employees from Maine to Florida selected to participate in the third company sales clinic, studied various phases of the oil industry and the latest marketing principles, according to M. L. Schwartz, vice president in charge of sales. Purpose of the clinic is to better equip company sales personnel with a knowledge of company products and to improve dealer and consumer relations.

During the course, Totten took part in classroom discussions and demonstrations and observed operations of the Wagner's Point, Md. refinery and Curtis Bay, Md. terminal, petroleum laboratory and automotive testing laboratory.

Following a dinner tomorrow night in Baltimore at which company executives will honor sales clinic graduates, Totten will return to his regular work in Cambridge.

Silver Turtles Hope To Sponsor California Trip For 10 Scouts

Funds Now Available For Only Two

Rules for determining the selection of Arlington Boy Scouts who will be awarded all-expense paid trips to the National Jamboree in California next summer were announced a week ago by the Silver Turtles.

It was announced at the same time that the proceeds from the Silver Turtles' "Music Under the Stars" production, held on the High School football field last fall on a rainy evening, amounted to only $704—not quite enough to send two scouts to the Jamboree. However, the Silver Turtle organization is planning an unusual project which it is hoped, will provide the means for sending at least 10 of Arlington's most outstanding Scouts to the event, when the special Jamboree train pulls out of Boston next July.

"Arlingtonians will hear more about this project within the next two weeks," said Harold N. Anderson, treasurer of the Turtles, who yesterday reported the final figures on last fall's extravaganza. "The success of our new project will not be at the mercy of the weather," he promised.

For his statement, a team of Turtles including Horace Homer, local scout commissioner, Charles F. Buckingham, James W. Rourke, Jr., and Richard B. Talcott, visited all scout troops and described the rules of the competition. The trips, they explained, will be awarded by the Turtles, who hope to be able to send one boy from each troop despite the fact that at the moment they can guarantee trips to only two.

These are the rules determining who shall go on the trip:

"One boy will be selected from each troop to compete on the following basis:

"1. He must be at least 12 years of age by January 1, 1953.

"2. He must be at least a second class scout or explorer apprentice by July 1st, 1953.

"3. He must show evidence of steady advancement in the past, although additional effort during the next three months will count strongly in his favor.

"4. If his rank at the moment is first class or above, he must show steady progress in passing and working on merit badges.

"5. He must show a definite interest in leadership, although he need not at present be a Patrol Leader or Assistant Patrol Leader.

"6. He must show willingness to cooperate with his Troop leaders in Troop projects and to be helpful at all times.

"7. He must display evidence of trying to live up to the Scout Oath and Law.

"8. He must participate in Troop and community projects. His willingness to help out in fund raising activities, such as that sponsored by the Silver Turtles on their 'Music Under the Stars' project and others to be announced, will count in his favor.

"9. He must have taken part in camping activities and be a capable camper.

"In short, the most outstanding scout in each Troop will be selected to appear before the Silver Turtles for screening. If that organization can afford to send 10 boys then there will be no competition beyond this point. If fewer are to be chosen, then those who screened on the same counts as appear before the Board will be shown above."

Several Scoutmasters plan to put into immediate operation a point system based on these regulations for the selection of "top" Scouts in their troops.

As they made their rounds, the Turtles described some of the many inviting aspects of the Jamboree which is being billed by national headquarters as a "Once-in-a-Lifetime Experience." In addition to camping with 50,000 brother Scouts from all over the world, the local winners will see 8,000 miles of America by special train. They will stop for a day at the Garden of the Gods, Pike's Peak, Canyon City, the Hanging Bridge and the Royal Gorge. They will also visit Salt Lake City and take a swim in Great Salt Lake.

Returning, they will go to Portland, Oregon, travel along the north bank of the Columbia River, stop at the Grand Coulee Dam and Glacier National Park, then spend a day seeing the sights in Chicago before entraining again for Arlington.

BISHOP

"A Newspaper Man's View of What is Happening in Education" was the subject discussed at the John A. Bishop P.T.A. meeting Tuesday, January 20th. The speaker was Leonard Wood, editor-manager of the Arlington Advocate. He paid tribute to the improvement of present-day school systems, with praise for Arlington's Guidance Department, but also stated he felt that, in this age of specialization, we have gotten too far away from the "three R's." A lively discussion followed his talk.

Parents were entertained preceding the meeting by Miss Mary Ann Mazzocco, trumpeter, and Miss Miriam Hamm, both seniors at Senior High School.

Mrs. Maurice Kirkpatrick conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Francis Keefe, chairman of the Budget-Finance committee presented the budget for 1953, which was adopted. As a project for the year, the P.T.A. will donate a designated sum for each room, Grades 1 through 6, to assist in field-trip transportation.

First and second grade mothers were hostesses for the evening and Mrs. Marcus Sorensen presided at the coffee table.

Miss Margaret Walker, Supervisor of elementary teacher training, Framingham State Teachers College, will be the speaker at the March 17th meeting. Her subject will be "What is New in Teaching Methods." A Brownie and Girl Scout ceremony will be presented to the open meeting.

RUSSELL

Russell School P.T.A. (Arlington, of course, not Cambridge) will hold an open-house meeting Wednesday evening February 4th. A program of much interest to parents has been planned, with Dr. Otto S. Nau, Jr., pediatrician of Arlington, as speaker. His topic will be "Discipline and Children."

P.T.A. Council Executives Vote Discontinuance Of Fine Arts Program For Next School Year

Much Dissension Over Decision Rocking PTA "Boat"

More than 1,800 Arlington children and their parents must be wrong.

That, at least, was the conclusion reached by members of the local Fine Arts program when they learned early this week that, despite the fact that 1800 persons—small-fry Arlingtonians and their equally-interested parents—braved one of the season's worst storms last Saturday to attend three performances of "Heidi," the Arlington Council of P. T. A.'s had voted to withdraw its sponsorship of the project for the next school year.

The executive body of the Council announced, however, that programs will be resumed in the fall of 1954. Reason for the halt in the much-praised program of the Council, the board of directors said, is to study all aspects of the project with the aim of making subsequent programs even more appealing to children of Arlington.

There were indications of indignation from parents as news of the Council's action became known. Meantime those who attended last Saturday's performance were stirred by the unusually touching re-creation of the story that has been the favorite of school children the country over for so many years. A production of the Clare Tree Major Children's Theatre of

New York, it is one of three cultural performances brought to Arlington this season by the Fine Arts program.

It now seems to the beset opponents of the vote that "King Midas" which was to have been merely the last of this season's productions, has been doomed by the Council's action to be the last that Arlington children will have the privilege of seeing within the borders of their own town. Opponents of the vote seem to believe that the program will not be resumed as stated by the Council executives.

The Fine Arts program was instituted in Arlington six years ago so that school children might hear good music and see the best of children's plays and classic ballets. The project was originated and perfected by Mrs. Hector MacNeil, who has been its program director since its inception. It is sponsored by the Arlington Council of Parent-Teacher Associations and financially supported by contributions of Arlington residents, which enables varied programs to be offered at a minimum cost to Arlington youth.

The first performance was given in Robbins Town Hall on December 6, 1947 when "Ali Baba" was performed. During the six years which have followed the children have been afforded the opportunity to hear good music studied in the schools under the direction of Miss Bernice Dodge previous to each program and played by the Philharmonic Society of Arlington and the Boston Concert Orchestra.

Children's musical masterpieces such as "Peter and the Wolf," the "Nutcracker Suite" and "Carnival of the Animals" have been illustrated by the Alicia Langford ballet and the Tufts School of Drama; such plays as "Robin Hood," Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream," "Aladdin," "The Secret Garden" and "Heidi" have been performed by the Tributary Theatre of Boston and the Clare Tree Major Children's Theatre of New York; and ballets depicting the stories of "Alice in Wonderland," "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," Maeterlinck's "Bluebird," "Swan Lake" and "Sleeping Beauty" have been danced by the Alicia Langford and Harriet Hootor ballet groups. In addition, the denizens of Marionette Puppeteers have given "Peter Pan" and "Paul Bunyan" for the younger children. Students attending high school have enjoyed the Harvard-Radcliffe Glee Club and George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion."

Many Arlingtonians have been jarred by the news of the Council's action. Said one disappointed parent, "The Fine Arts program is one of the very few remaining barriers to the general low-grade type of television and radio programs to which our children are constantly subjected. It is their one contact, locally, with the world of worthwhile music and drama. And one of the most outstanding and hopeful aspects of the program is the fact that most productions have been so well attended—that there always seemed to be a definite demand for the project. I hope that some action will be taken to counteract the Council's move so that our children will not be deprived of the program's benefits."

The Council did make some provision for remnants of the program to be carried out in the schools by voting "that a portion of the surplus money be used at the discretion of Miss Bernice V. Dodge supervisor, the Council president, and the Fine Arts chairman, to further musical appreciation in the Arlington elementary schools."

It was also voted that a committee be appointed to "evaluate anew the fine arts projects; to study and seek out programs which can be enjoyed and participated in by more of the school children; to re-organize and reconstruct to the best of its ability a true fine arts program eliminating as far as possible the pitfalls already encountered."

Meanwhile, however, many of those with pronounced opinions on the matter felt that, culturally speaking, it's going to be a bleak season next year for Arlington's youngsters.

THROUGH FOREIGN EYES

A while ago 14 Austrian coal miners visited this country under the Mutual Security Program. A Pennsylvania newspaper devoted a page of pictures and text to describing their amazement at the unbelievable living standards enjoyed by the American miners.

The Austrians couldn't believe at first that all the cars they saw parked near the pits belonged to the miners. They were astounded at the comforts and luxuries, ranging from refrigerators to TV sets, they saw in miners' homes. They were amazed to find that all you had to do to get hot water in one of these homes was to turn a faucet.

When an interpreter told them that the average American miner earned over $18 a day the Austrians assumed he had made a mistake—that the $18 was for a full week's work. They were dazzled by the welfare and retirement benefits our miners receive. And when the president of the coal company they were visiting passed by and said hello to a group of miners they thought they'd seen a miracle of democracy. It seemed even more miraculous when the president said, "Of course I speak to them. They're my friends. I play cards with them." It's still pretty much the rule in Europe that bosses are bosses and workers are workers and never the twain shall meet.

The Austrians saw something that too many Americans overlook. Under free enterprise—the much-discussed "capitalist system"—labor has made the greatest gains in all history.

primarily because very few stocks are held on margin today. Technically, the stock market is now in a sound position, but this is not the reason people are buying stocks today. The reason is that they believe "Big Business" has at last taken back the control of our country. But if this is true (which I doubt) it is no reason to buy stocks for speculation. Hoover selected as his Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon—one of America's richest and brainiest men. Big Business controlled the Hoover administration.

The sad truth is that the present period of prosperity has not been built upon honest work and savings. It has been built on borrowed money, much of which has been spent on war. In 1914, when World War I started, our national debt was less than two billion dollars. Today it is over 250 billion dollars.

If the Republicans will continue Truman finance, they probably can keep the balloon inflated a few years more. If, however, they start to operate in another way—as did President Hoover and Andrew Mellon—by reducing the debt, discharging government employees and urging economy, stocks will surely have a bad fall.

Making Money In The Stock Market

Successful brokers are, by nature, bullish. They must try to get you to buy stocks. I, however, suggest you ask your broker these two simple questions:

(1) Are stocks cheap today?
(2) Will they some day sell 1/2 point below present quotations?

Most brokers are honest, even when wearing rosy glasses. Get a "Yes" or "No" answer—then use your judgment.
It is entirely possible that the stock market will go higher, but this possibility does not interest me. Based on all history, I know stocks will some day sell 100, or perhaps 200, points lower. I'm putting my hard-earned savings in the bank awaiting such a time. What money I have made has been through patience. Who was it said: "Patient Waiters are Never Losers"?

1,000,000 Boston TV Sets

The sale of television sets in the Boston coverage area during the month of December brought set distribution in this area to more than 1,000,000, according to figures released by WNAC and WBZ-TV.

The current survey conducted jointly each month by the two Hub video stations shows 1,002,032 sets installed in homes and public places as of January 1, 1953. The increase over the previous month of November comes to 15,465 sets.

Only Colorado has more bituminous coal than Illinois.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir,
May I use your column to answer the letter from Mrs. Mary Anderson in regard to support of the Town Manager by candidates for Selectman. I should like to write her as follows, with the answer available also to the general public:
Dear Mrs. Anderson:
"Your forthright letter in last week's papers regarding proper support of a Town Manager requires a forthright answer. This is it.
"I shall, as Selectman, support the Town Manager 100%. I shall work to the end that he will be given all the authority possible under the Act. Responsibility without authority is valueless. I shall support any and all decisions he makes as long as the purpose is an honest one. I shall not only give him the time normally required in Selectmen's meetings, but will give him all my available time.
"I agree that he should have the full confidence of the Board as you suggest, but I will go a step further. All of my 20 or more years of town activity along governmental lines, in experience and knowledge, will be at his complete disposal.
"We citizens have, by a majority vote instituted Town Managership as part of the town's operation. We must support it to the fullest extent. It can lead to economies and efficiencies that will place Arlington among the best-run towns in the country.
"Who can be opposed to that kind of happiness?"
Respectfully,
George A. Harris
196 Cedar Ave.

Dear Sir:
I wish to call to the attention of your readers the fact that Arlington is fortunate to have such a well-qualified candidate for selectman (three year term) as Herbert O. Alderson.
In addition to establishing a highly successful business career, he has devoted more than 20 years to active community effort here in Arlington. For 18 years he has served as a town meeting member. This experience certainly qualifies him as a man who understands Arlington people and their needs, and their wishes.
Sincerely yours,
FREDERICK L. COES,
247 Appleton Street.

THE NEWS Observes

The new traffic light at Cleveland Street and Broadway went into operation for the first time at 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 27th. The last pieces of equipment were delivered to the location early in the morning, with installation completed in the afternoon. Underground operations now have been started for the traffic light to be installed at River Street and Broadway.

People having children attending school in the area have expressed their appreciation to the committee which worked so hard to get the traffic lights.

The next meeting of the East Arlington Town Meeting Members Assn. will be held in the new hall of the East Arlington Library on February 9th. Members of the School Board and the public are especially invited.

Mrs. Helen R. Donaldson of 34 Marathan Street, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is now recuperating.

There was a big picture of Arlington Center in the December 1952 issue of Contact, the monthly publication of the New England Electric System. The accompanying article told about the local library, the first free public library in Massachusetts, about how the people here built a town hall for the sum of $22,000 and dedicated it with a ball. Says the article: "The horse car was replaced by the omnibus and for 20 cents you could ride to Boston. Streets were lighted with gas, a savings bank founded, schoolhouses outgrown and new ones built." The part about a ride to Boston costing $20 surely should have current interest. Wonder how long the trip took!

Since the end of World War II the U. S. has exported about 160 million tons of coal, exclusive of shipments to Canada.

Patterson, Selectman Candidate, Calls Revaluation "Gold Brick"

Although candidate-for-Selectman George A. Harris has since stated that he is neither in favor of nor against the idea of having an outside firm appraise all Arlington property in an effort to equalize property valuations—he says he is only for bringing the idea out into the open for discussion—his story in last week's papers advocating the plan has drawn a retort from another candidate for Selectman, William S. Patterson.

Patterson says the proposal appears to him to be a "gold brick," and he makes counter-suggestions to the voters, Town Meeting members, and "to a committee" to oppose the proposal made last week. His full letter to the editor is as follows:

"In last week's papers, the claims made for a revaluation survey of the town's taxable property as a means of reducing taxes seem fantastic to me. I would like to know how juggling valuation is going to reduce taxes for the vast majority of the taxpayers, bring extra revenue to the town treasury, and pay for the admittedly expensive survey over and over again as is stated in the article. I don't know where the sponsor of this scheme got his information, but his claims make it look like a 'gold brick' to me.

"There is a lot of talk going the rounds about these $100,000 surveys and it isn't all favorable by any means. I have heard that towns with their surveys still incomplete are tremendously upset over the tax changes. It might be well for this party to investigate his informants further before he tries to sell his scheme at town meeting. No one wants the town to buy a gold brick that will only result in headaches for our assessors.

"They say the plan merely shifts part of the valuation load from the new houses to the older houses. This, I presume, is because the older houses have, of late, been bringing better prices and the new houses, because of their taxes, have been making the complaints. With new home owners in the minority and they getting the tax reductions, it is reasonable to presume that the others must stand the increases necessary to make these reductions possible. It looks to me more like a plan where the small-minority saves and the vast majority pays, but according to accounts, even the small minority has its reductions wipe out in the two years of corrections which follow the survey, so no one wins in the end except those who correct the taxes. Perhaps, my mind is too old-fashioned for these times, but the only way I know to reduce taxes is to stop careless spending and eliminate waste. Hiring a Town manager for this purpose is a good step in the right direction. However, he will not have control over that extra spending that goes on at town meetings which adds dollars to our tax rate. But criticism to be helpful must be constructive. I am told, so here are my suggestions, any one of which I think will help reduce our taxes:

Opposes "Plan"

"SUGGESTIONS No. 1. To Town Meeting Members: Follow the recommendations of the Finance Committee unless a gross mistake is very evident. Don't place your hurried judgment above theirs. They have had the benefit of longer and more detailed studies. They are intelligent and capable men. We hold them—not you—responsible for careful spending. Don't let one or two of your fellow members lead you into running the town from the town hall floor. Year after year this happens, stepping up the taxes of the constituents you are supposed to represent. This does your dignity an injustice and upsets the work of a valuable committee.

"SUGGESTION No. 2. To the Voting Public: Know the town meeting members in your precinct and learn if they really represent you at the Town Meeting. If not—when they again come up for reelection, get out and work to replace them.

"SUGGESTIONS No. 3. To a Committee: Find ways and means to limit a pre-determined tax rate in such a way that it will not obstruct progress. I admit this will take a bit of doing, but we have an excellent Town Council.

"A Tip to Town Meeting Members: When ringing door-bells to get signatures for my nomination papers I learned that all homeowners I called on wanted something done to reduce taxes. A word to the wise is sufficient."

"P. S. I have just heard that the Bennington, Vermont taxpayers are up in arms over a Revaluation Survey, and two town officials in Bennington, Vt., were relieved of their duties because of one."

After establishing an all-time high in coal production in 1951, Virginia's 262 mines proceeded to break this record in 1952.

New Studebaker Now On Display

For the second time since World War II the Studebaker Corporation has unveiled a line of passenger cars that promises to set the pace in future design for the automobile industry.

Designed by Raymond Loewy, Studebaker's 1953 cars break as sharply with American contemporary design as did their predecessors immediately after the war. Although they reflect to some extent the influence of European styling, they retain the comfort, stamina, and roadability characteristic of Studebaker cars.

Complementing the styling changes will be the availability of mechanical power steering for the Commander series, the first time this type of power steering has been adapted for passenger car use. Power steering for the popular Champion will be offered later in the year.

Harold S. Vance, board chairman and president of Studebaker, says of the new line: "We believe we have again taken the lead in stimulating a new style trend. The advance is as definite as was that of 1946, if not more so. And again, in our opinion, the new styling is destined to play the pace-setting role for the reason that it fulfills the American automobile owner's ideas as to what the 'new look' in motor cars should be.

The regular meeting of the Arlington Police Wives Association will be held on Tuesday evening, February 3, at 8 P.M. in the Old Town Hall.

EASTER FILM SERIES

Trinity Baptist Church will present an Easter series of sound moving pictures dealing with the life of Jesus, the programs beginning on February 11 and continuing until April 8. Titles and dates of the films are:

LETTER FROM "MRS. IKE" Mrs. Laura J. Cutter of Gloucester Street sent Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower a necklace of ivory elephants being graded in size from 1 1/2 inches down to a tiny size. There were 45 elephants in all of the string. Mrs. Cutter reports: As a result of the gift, Mrs. Eisenhower received a very cordial personal letter from Mrs. Eisenhower. An original sonnet entitled "The Denner's Report" was presented by Den 14. A rollicking chorus of "Down the Bingo Farm" closed the show.

"GOLDEN GARDENS" IS THEME OF N. E. SPRING FLOWER SHOW

"Golden Gardens" is the appealing theme of the 82nd annual New England Spring Flower Show, sponsored by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, to be held March 15 through March 21 at Mechanics Building, Boston. At the moment, hundreds of garden club members, nurserymen, seedsmen, and private gardeners are busily engaged working out the details for their exhibits, which will be full of surprises.

Grand Hall will literally glow with sunshine this year. The center aisle, leading to a huge fountain in a formal setting on the stage, will be bordered with fragrant, billowy acacias. Across the foreground of the stage, a woodland garden filled with primroses will suggest all the rich overtones of a Persian carpet. Tulips, azaleas in shades of yellow and orange, dogwoods and luxuriant evergreens will flank the side walls. Two rose gardens will complete the setting.

An old-time herb garden, camellias in a setting reminiscent of the deep south, spring in a country garden, terrace settings, desert scenes, woodland paths, bulb gardens and numerous small gardens full of ideas for the development of city and suburban home grounds will provide visitors with inspiration and pleasure, according to a statement recently by Arno H. Nehrling, director of exhibitions.

Gardening through the year perhaps best describes the series of more than a dozen little gardens planned by the women's exhibitions committee under the direction of Mrs. John Cunningham. Glimpses of spring, luxuriant summer borders, autumn terraces and winter conservatories will highlight this section of the show. In the flower arrangement section, the Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts, under direction of Mrs. Samuel B. Kirkwood, will interpret color in arrangements in Paul Revere Hall, where the theme will be "The Museum of Color." Winter flowers from local greenhouses and conservatories, as well as tropical material from Hawaii, will be arranged in novel settings.

At Arlington Post 39 of the Legion several members recently were honored for their many years as members of the Legion. Of the number, 24 had been members for the 35 years, joining in 1918 when the Legion was but an infant.

Those belonging for 35 years include: Timothy J. Buckley, Frank M. Harwood, Rev. John Nicol Mark, Charles F. H. Allen, Clement J. Beaudet, Philip J. Burt, Thornton J. Cutler, Perry J. Cummings, Joseph P. Farnham, Frederick W. Hill, Percival Mott, William S. Rooney, Chester E. Hoyt, Andrew A. Magnus, Harold E. Meyer, William T. McCarty, Richard D. Noy, John A. Sweeney, William C. Scannell, Charles J. Tynan, Chester R. Whitman, William L. Carroll, Edward A. Smith, Sarkis M. Zartarian.

25 Years—Leigh Thomas.
30 Years—Elmer E. Anderson, Robert W. Smith, John J. Foley.

Chief Of Police Gives His Bit

In a scene that will be reenacted in thousands of Arlington homes tonight, Mrs. Maurice Kirkpatrick, Mother's March Captain for Precinct 9, answers the porchlight signal of Police Chief Archie Bullock to accept his contribution to fight Infantile Paralysis. Auxiliary Police Lt. Jack Podgur, who is acting as escort, looks on.

members of the Senior High Pilgrim Fellowship attended a week-end retreat at the Massachusetts Congregational Conference Center in Framingham. The group, which included Marcia Moltman, Helen Lyman, Natalie Roghaar and Robert Barney, was joined by representatives of the Pilgrim Fellowship of Plymouth Congregational Church, Belmont.

Parents of children in the kindergarten department of the Church School have been invited to attend a meeting on Tuesday evening in the church vestry, when Miss Ruth E. Curry, newly appointed director of religious education, and Miss Dorothea Johnson, kindergarten superintendent, will discuss plans for a new departmental program. Miss Curry is the editor of children's publications for the division of Christian education of the National Conference of Congregational Christian Churches.

Accepting Appointments
The Cancer Prevention and Detection Center, an affiliate of the Boston Evening Clinic at 452 Beacon Street, is a part-pay public service dedicated to detect early cancer and pre-cancerous conditions. The center is now accepting appointments by telephone for the next three-month period, February 5 to April 30.

Christian Science Service

The spiritual basis of plan's brotherhood, as children of one Father, divine Love, will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love" which will be read in Christian Science churches on Sunday.

The healing power in divine Love in the overcoming of fear is emphasized in this Bible passage, which will be among those read during the service: "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment." (1 John 4:18).
Passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include: "It should be thoroughly understood that all men have one Mind, one God and Father, one Life, Truth, and Love. Mankind will become perfect in proportion as this fact becomes apparent, war will cease and the true brotherhood of man will be established." (467:9-13).
The Golden Text is from Jeremiah (9:24): "Let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth."

HADASSAH BOOK-SHELF GIFT TO BE PRESENTED ON 11th

The Arlington Chapter of Hadassah will present a "Hadassah book shelf" to Robbins Library on Wednesday, February 11, at 8:30 o'clock, the presentation, to which the public is invited, taking place in the library auditorium.

Mrs. Sidney L. Kahan, Chapter president, will formally turn the gift over to Roscoe O. Elliott, library trustee, who will express to Mrs. Kahan and her organization the gratitude of the Library and of the townspeople.

The gift will contain histories, fiction, biographies, and a number of children's books, and refreshments will be served during the social hour.

Also on the program will be the showing of a moving picture—in color—entitled "Passport To Life." The picture will depict the miracle of reclamation of children done by Jewish organizations among displaced children of Europe. Mrs. Jacob Katz, Youth Aliyah chairman, will give a brief summary of Hadassah's child rescue work. Many local church women's organizations have received special invitations to the ceremony.

Edwin O. Wing, head of the vocal department of the Arlington Academy of Music, has been appointed Massachusetts state chairman of the National Association of Teachers of Singing. This duty, along with Mr. Wing's solo performances, will supplement his teaching at the Academy.
